AMONGTHE

MASONIC.

Oct. 12—Temple-Noyes, No. 32, religious services, 3 p.m., Masonic and Eastern Star Home.
Oct. 13—Dawson, No. 16, E. A. Stansbury, No. 24, grand visitation, 8 p.m.

tion, 8 p.m.
Oct. 14—Federal, No. 1,
Acacia, No. 18, E. A.
Takoma, No. 29,
Oct. 15—Washington Centennial, No. 14

Oct. 15—Washington Centennia, 165 E. F. C. Osiris, No. 26, F. C. East Gate, No. 34, F. C. Oct. 16—Naval, No. 4, E. A. Hiram, No. 10, La Fayette, No. 19, E. A. William R. Singleton, No. 30, grand visitation, 8 p.m. Oct. 17—Columbia, No. 3, grand visitation, 8 p.m. tion, 8 p.m. tion, 8 p.m. Lebanon, No. 7, grand visitation, 8:30 p.m.

ROYAL ARCH CHAPTERS.

Mount Horeb, No. Potomac, No. 8.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES. Oct. 14—DeMolay Mounted, No. 4. Oct. 15—Potomac, No. 3. Oct. 17—Columbia, No. 2, red cross. ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE.

Oct. 14—Evangelist Chapter, Knights
Rose Croix, called off.
ROYAL AND SELECT MASTERS.
Oct. 16—Adoniram Council, No. 2, de-MISCELLANEOUS.

Oct. 16-Kallipolis Grotto, Veiled Prophets, ladies' night, New Willard.

EASTERN STAR CHAPTERS.
Oct. 13-Temple, No. 13; Columbia, No. Oct. 14—Electa, No. 2; Oct. 15—Areme, No. 16. Oct. 16—Esther, No. 5. Oct. 17—Martha, No. 4.

The Grand Lodge visitations to the Stansbury Lodge, No. 24, in Brightwood | were present at the last meeting of Mar-Hall, Brightwood. The next will be to tha Chapter, No. 4, O. E. S., when the de-Tenlevtown, Thursday evening, followed patrons of 1913, with Mrs. Maude E. B.

There was a noticeable improvement in the bulletining of the degree work by the blue lodges this week, but three lodges omitting it. The royal arch P. Barnes of Cathedral, No. 14, as assista noticeable improvement in Tayloe Snyder will officiate. Special Among those present were Mrs. Grace music will be provided. Conveyances Wilkins Kimmel and Kenton N. Harper, will meet the cars at Rittenhouse street the grand matron and the grand patron to convey visitors to the home. Worship- of this jurisdiction. generally to be present. The lodge mem-bers will assemble in their lodgeroom at Masonic Temple at 1:30 p.m. sharp. and Mrs. Rogers will come to Washington Thursday evening to be the guests of a close honor of the "laides' night" which will polis Grotto, No. 15, Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm. in addition to many surprises which will sprung regardless of the program, here is to be dancing, flowers, souvenirs, an excellent supper and "entertainment" and sweethearts of the prophets. The affair is to be "informal," which means that the fellow who has no evening dress Grant, chairman; E. W. Hawkins, vice chairman; W. W. Jermane, A. E. Cook, Dr. W. H. Wunder, Peter Latterner, Mark Stearman, E. W. Zea, P. W. Nicholson, T. T. Moore, Charles S. Fine. Nicholson, T. T. Moore, Charles S. King. After the close of Nathan Well, I. S. Goldsmith, Charles S. ments were served.

Zurhurst, Dr. W. H. Hampton, F. H. Pierce, Maj. C. W. Clark. Entertainment, .. Harmon, J. L. DeNeale, H. F. McKinney, Robert Adam, Phil Nachman; flowers, P. R. Pullman, chairman; G. C. Shaffer, vice chairman; W. F. Gude, G. M. Thomas, W. W. Kimmel, G. H. Cooke, ramer, E. C. Mayberry, James Duff; souvenir program, A. B. Williams, chair-Clark, W. A. Williams, W. J. Jacoby, F. B. Volz, C. A. Brewton; floor, H. C. Stein, chairman; C. M. Keefer, vice chairman; W. C. Myers, E. C. Wood, Chris Rouse, Charles Schneider, Louis Hartig. A. G. Frey, Joseph Stecker, Edward Littleton Charles Taylor, Milton Brock; refreshments. Theo Picard, chairman: E. S. Schmid, vice chairman; Bernard Endres, David Busch, George H. Emmons, r., A. H. Rodgers, H. W. McKeldin, H. E. Haferkorn; decorations, J. H. Small, jr., chairman; Meyer Hanlein, Charles Macmedical, Dr. Fred Yates, chair-Dr. G. F. Day, vice chairman; Dr. E. M. Hasbrouck, Dr. J. A. Heustis, Dr. G. S. Barnhart, Dr. G. K. Baier, Dr. Wade H. Atkinson, Dr. F. E. Gibson, Dr. E. G. Seibert, Dr. W. H. R. Brandenburg,

Dr. W. F. R. Phillips, Dr. J. E. Mitchell. Senior Deacon James S. McCarthy will have charge of the presentation of the F. C. degree in Washington Centennial Lodge, No. 14, Wednesday evening. The lodge will have its grand visitation the

A delegation of members from Arminius | with the line officers filling the next high-Lodge, No. 25, headed by Worshipful est stations. Refreshments were served Master George M. Slebert, took the 6:05 in the banquet hall. train on the electric road Thursday evening to visit Germania Lodge, No. 160, where the M. M. degree was presented and Charles Klein, son of Worshipful Master Henry Klein of Germania Lodge, was received as a full member. Following the degree and the closing of the their president, the presiding matrons attendance of its members present. lodge, the visitors attended the elaborate banquet prepared, at which prob-stations as follows: Worthy matron, Mrs. which is purely local, and which will were made by Messrs. Siebert and Treaswere made by Messrs. Siebert and Treassociate matron, Mrs. Helen T. Molster of appointed by the Supreme Lodge, are as importance, and the officers hope to have a large attendance. This will also be social night in the temple, and it is addresses made in each by the members of the Arion Gesang Verein, reinforced by the Supreme Lodge, are as importance, and the officers hope to have a large attendance. This will also be social night in the temple, and it is addresses made in each by the members addresses addresse by singers from the Baltimore Arions, associate conductress, Mrs. Marie Pierce Under the direction of Vice President of Areme Chapter; secretary, Mrs. Lena tary, Past Grand Chancellor J. W. Carter, William Wiegman of the Washington Arlons, sang a number of choral selections. Others among the visitors were Chapter; marshal, Mrs. Josephine V. Henry Wassman, Martin Weber, Gus O'Mera of Temple Chapter; chaplain, ing committees: Executive committee—H. Hartung, John Alt, Karl Achterkirchen Mrs. Edith Lynn of Friendship Chapter; P. Willey, J. M. Kline, sr., J. W. Carling Chapter; will be the chapter of the ch and M. Kelly. Worshipful Master Siebert of Arminius Lodge invited his Baltrumore brethren to come to Washington of William F. Hunt Chapter; Esther, Mrs. Loan Mrs. Loan Briefler, J. M. Kalle, Sr., J. W. Caring. The londwing program was renter, Jefferson Middleton, T. A. Bynum, dered: Remarks by Grand Lecturer John ter, Jefferson Middleton, T. A. Bynum, dered: Remarks by Grand Lecturer John trumore brethren to come to Washington of William F. Hunt Chapter; Esther, Mrs.

F. H. Melick, C. E. McAllister, W. A. piano solo, Byron Blodgett; remarks by the better for his having lived in it, and the influence of his good deeds will never, never die." Of Senior Warden Wood he says: "Brother Wood's sterling qualities, his genial disposition, his faithfulness to his trust and his loyalty to Dawson Lodge endeared him in the hearts of his brethren, who will long cherish his memory. It is a good thing for a man to leave behind him such a record as did Brother Wood."

Columbia Commandery, No. 2, is en-deavoring to arrange with her sister Templar ball for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, and also for a com-mandery "ladies' night" on an elabo-Takoma Lodge, No. 29, will devote its communication Tuesday evening to business." The lodge officers are already making preparations for the grand visitation Tuesday evening, October 28. Past Master James W. Dyre, musical director of the lodge, is preparing a special musical program, and some prominent speakers are expected to be present at the visitation.

The Fellowship Club of Master Masons will resume its regular meetings Saturday, October 18, with the Masters' Association of 1913 as its guests. President James A. Williams and his committees are said to be unusually busy in the effort to make the evening

M. E. Sir Arthur MacArthur, grand master of Knights Templar of the United States of America, has appointed R. E. Sir Thomas P. Morgan, past grand commander of the District of Columbia, a member of the finance committee of the Grand Encampment for the ensuing three years. R. E. Sir Knight Morgan was also honored by being appointed a member of the committee on Christmas ob-servance, by M. E. Sir William B. Melish, then grand master presiding at the tri-ennial conclave at Denver, Col.

Eastern Star Notes.

More than 500 members and visitors y Lodge, No. 24, in Brightwood that Chapter, No. 4, O. E. S., when the degrees were conferred by the matrons and patrons of 1913, with Mrs. Maude E. B. Wright of Esther Chapter, No. 5, as and to Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, worthy matron; Francis Kimmel of Martha, No. 4, as worthy patron; Mrs. Bertha B. Haines of Electa, No. 2, as associate Monday evening Ruth Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, held its birthday session, at which an unusual number of members of the Rebekah branch was present. After the rendition of an excellent program in the lodgeroom those present adjourned to the banquet room, where a bounteous spread was laid by the entertainment of the particle. and to Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, worthy matron; Francis Kimmel of Mar-B. Haines of Electa, No. 2, as associate ful Master Sterling Kerr, jr., has asked | The grand matron gave an interesting a large attendance of the members, and account of her recent visit to Chicago extended an invitation to the fraternity to attend the General Grand Chapter of the O. E. S., and the grand patron, in behalf of the officers of the chapter, presented Worthy Patron Francis Kimmel with a handsome cut glass water set because of his recent marriage.

A buffet supper brought the evening be given at the New Willard by Kalli-polis Grotto, No. 15. Mystic Order of with the Associate Matron Mrs. Evelyn Hursh in the east.

Ruth Chapter Monday evening had a for the wives, mothers, daughters, sisters degrees conferred on a class of candidates by Associate Matron Miss Martha Shaw. The other line officers were adstation was filled by Past Matron Mrs. Rebecca Meiners. All, it is said, deserve praise for their excellent work. oring to make the event the best the strong for an address by Associate Grand Matron grotto has ever held: Arrangements, Castleman P. Boss, chairman; C. E. Coberth, vice chairman. Reception, Jesse F. By Mrs. Ollie Joyce and an interesting by Mrs. Ollie Joyce and an interesting

The advancing of the line of Bethleher S. F. Shreve, chairman; F. Herrmann, vice chairman; Charles Aufenthie. W. E. Evans, H. A. Scroggins, W. T. Wade, J. Evans, M. Scroggins, W. T. Wade, M. Scroggins, W. Scrog evening, has been postponed until the evening of October 28 on account of the annual grand visitation of Electa Chapter. Only routine business will be transacted at the meeting Tuesday night, in order that those members who desire may attend the visitation to Electa Chapter. Those who intended bringing donations for the home have been requested to wait until the meeting of October 28.

William F. Hunt Chapter at its meeting Thursday evening conferred the degrees on two candidates and transacted important business, including the drawing of a warrant for the fourth and last installment of the chapter's contribution toward building the addition to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

Past Patron E. Harry L. Myers, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, was reported as much improved and able to During the evening Mrs. Frances Levy was presented with an Eastern Star pin by Past Patron Ernest S. Brown as a prize for selling the largest number of tickets for the excursion held last summer. A plane sole was played by Mrs. Clara Hall of Ruth Chapter, No. 1, and a recitation given by Mrs. Elizabeth Cowson of Cathedral Chapter, No. 14, both numbers winning encores. Worthy Matron Mrs. Rosie I. Carter announced that at the next stated meeting, October 23, the work will be done by the associate matron, Mrs. Katle Rose,

The matrons and patrons of 1913 will be the honor guests of Esther Chapter, No. 5, Thursday evening, at Masonic Temple, and at the request of Worthy call meeting at Pythian Temple last Matron Mrs. Maude E. Wright, who is Thursday with an exceptionally large Lillie MacKenzie of Martha Chapter; as- work in conjunction with the committee for a week at 1013 4½ street southwest. The entertainment committee, Mrs. Helen The entertainment committee, Mrs. Helen B. Strait, chairman, presented a drama of two acts, written by herself, entitled "The Spinsters' Club," which created much laughter and was liberally applauded. The cast included Mrs. Vivia G.

Park, as Grand Spinster; Mrs. Annie V.
Yeatman, grand registrar, and Mesdames Poynton, Hood, Gavin and Knapp and Miss Penfield. W. H. Hoofnagle was the bachelor target for the spinsters, and Charles S. Hyer his trusted valet and guard.

ODD FELLOWS.

LODGES.

Oct. 13-Beacon, No. 15, and Langdon, No. 26, degree; Union, No. 11, and Covenant, No. 13, business.

Oct. 14-Washington, No. 6, and Golden Rule, No. 21, degree; Amity, No. 27, business.

Oct. 15-Federal City, No. 20, degree; Eastern, No. 7; Harmony, No. 9, and Friendship, No. 12, business.

business.
Oct. 16—Columbia, No. 10, Grand visitation; Excelsior, No. 17, and Salem, No. 22, business.
Oct. 17—Central, No. 1, and Metropolis, No. 16, degree; Phoenix, No. 28, business.

ENCAMPMENTS. Oct. 14-Fred D. Stuart, No. 7, degree. Oct. 15-Mount Nebo, No. 6, Grand vis-Itation and open meeting. Oct. 17—Magenenu, No. 4, degree.

REBERAH LODGES.

Oct. 13-Esther, No. 5, degree, Oct. 17-Miriam, No. 6, business PATRIARCHS MILITANT Oct. 18-Washington, No. 1, drill.

All members of the Order of Odd Felthat Wednesday evening Mount Nebo Encampment, No. 6, will have a visit from the grand patriarch and his corps of grand officers. Following the official visit the encampment has arranged for an open meeting, to which all members of subordinate lodges, whether members, of the Encampment branch or not, are inbeen arranged for, and a social time is promised. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served. The object of the open meeting is to bring to the attention of the membership not members of the Encampment branch the beauties of the Encampment degrees and

Grand Master Edgar D. Thompson, accompanied by his staff of grand officers, lodges omitting it. The royal arch lodges of the royal arch l Temple-Noyes Lodge, No. 32, will have of Takoma, No. 12, as Martha; Mrs. charge of the religious services at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and Rev. William Mizpah, No. 8, as warder.

During the coming week the initiatory degree will be conferred by Beacon Lodge, No. 15, Monday evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, and Wednesday evening Federal City Lodge, No. 20, will confer the first degree. Several of the other lodges that meet in Odd Fellows' Hall, 7th street porthwest have indicated they would northwest, have indicated they would have degree work, but the grand secre-tary has not been officially advised as to the degrees to be conferred.

Columbia Lodge, No. 10, the largest lodge in this jurisdiction, will receive a visit Thursday evening from Grand Mas-ter E. D. Thompson and his corps of grand officers. A visit to this lodge is Ruth Chapter Monday evening had a said to be always a pleasure, and it is large number of members and visitors of the fraternity present to without the desired by the grand master that as many as can will attend the coming visi-

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Oct. 13-Decatur, No. 9, business.
Calanthe, No. 11, rank of esquire Oct. 14—Webster, No. 7, business.
Excelsior, No. 14, business.
Germania, No. 15, business.
Capital, No. 24, business.
Myrtle, No. 25, business.
Oct. 15—Mount Vernon, No. 5, busine
Union, No. 22, business.
Oct. 16—Franklin, No. 2, business.
Oct. 17—Syracusians, No. 10, business

PYTHIAN SISTERS. Oct. 15—Friendship Temple, No. 9, degree Oct. 17—Rathbone Temple, No. 8, business MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Oct. 16-Coldwell Company, No. 7, special FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY COMMITTEE.

Oct. 13-Meeting of general committee

Oct. 15—Washington Company, No. 1, business.

Temple tomorrow evening, when every member of the committee is expected to

Century Lodge, No. 30, having so requested, the grand chancellor has changed the date of the visitation of quested, Amaranth Lodge, No. 28, held a very interesting convention at its castle hall in Northeast Temple last Monday evening, when the rank of knight was conferred upon two applicants in amplified form. A large attendance of the mem-bers of that lodge as well as many visit-ors from sister lodges were present, and Past Grand Chancellor John C. Yost, as master of work, and among those taking part in the ritualistic portion were Rev. W. W. Barnes and W. E. Andrews of that lodge. Harmony Lodge held its annual roll Mrs. Lena | tary, Past Grand Chancellor J. W. Carter, be of William F. Hunt Chapter; Esther, Mrs. for a visit to his lodge the evening of Naomi Chapter; November 18, when it will also receive its grand visitation.

The next work in the local Scottish Rite hodies will be the fifteenth degree in Evangelist Chapter, Knights Rose Croix, the evening of October 28. The Scottish Rite Cathedral has been tendered to the exclusive use of the Supreme Council of the program a buffet in the conclusive use of the Supreme Council of the program a buffet in the exclusive use of the Supreme Council of the program a buffet in the conclusion of the program a buffet in the exclusive use of the Supreme Council of the program a buffet in the evening of October 28. The Scottish Rite Cathedral has been tendered to the exclusive use of the Supreme Council of the program a buffet in the conclusion of the program a buffet in the exclusive use of the Supreme Council of the program a buffet in the conclusion of the program and the conclusion of the program and the conclusion of the conclusion of the program and the conclusion of the program and the conclusion of the

The Big Store 915 to 925 Seventh Street

Gackson Bros Doing a big furniture business On Quick Sales and Small Profit Plan.

You will not find in New York or Philadelphia a larger or better collection of furniture than we show. Our stock is enormous it would take you hours and hours to see all we have—the choice is unlimited. No matter what article you want to buy—we can show you more of it and better and later designs than any other house in this city. We do a big furniture business—we buy in carload lots-and are busy selling all the time. You know our reputation for low prices. We have always undersold everybody else, and now we combine with these low prices a new sort of credit arrangement by which you not only get the lowest cash pricesbut the easiest credit terms.

Ask About Our New Method Credit Plan.

$39.50

For An Exquisite

Solid Mahogany

Colonial Dresser.

Actual $65.00

Value.

Guaranteed lacquer; heavy gauge remnants. Suitable for bathrooms, vestibules and automobiles. Were $1.50 to $2.00 yard. Close out at..... 250 dd 350 ld.

at greatly reduced prices.

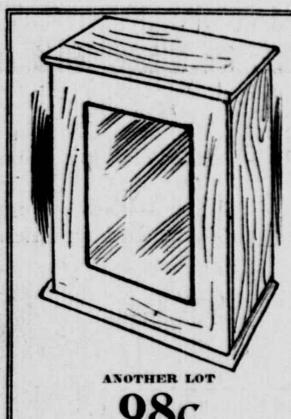

For This Elegant Fumed or Early English Solid

Magazine Kack Actual Value, $1.75

Get in Early.

9 Ft.x12 Ft. Plush WILTON RUGS. Persian and other oriental Regular $50 $36.00 value. Sale $36.00

Medicine Cabinet WITH MIRROR AND NICE SHELVES HONESTLY WORTH $3,00

Solid oak, mission finish; very sub-stantial construction. These won't last long; get in early. All the Finest

GCKSON 3180S. Seventh Street

Furniture.

composed of Messrs. Harry Cohen, Braun

Regular Price, $36.

and Frick. Capital Lodge will give a series of entertainments at the conclusion of each meeting. The committee in charge promises something unique for every meeting during the winter.

Largest Display

Dining Room

Furniture

in Washington.

Mount Vernon Lodge, No. 5, has organized a fine team to confer the ranks. At the conclusion of its regular business every Wednesday evening considerable time is devoted to rehearsals.

The large attendance and the active interest displayed at the recent meetings of to be encouraging to those who have in charge the local arrangements for the jubilee to be held in February. With the progress already made it is said to be an assured fact that this will be the most notable Pythian affair ever held in the will have the pleasure of witnessing at the grand lodge officers to that lodge to the time of the fiftieth anniversary the work of the finest first and third rank teams in the United States. They will be brought here for that purpose by the Supreme Lodge. It is the purpose of the local committee to make a strong effort to have a class of three or four hundred candidates ready for these teams, and every lodge in the city is being urgently requested to lend every assistance pos-sible toward the accomplishment of this

> Acting Grand Chancellor Stearman has decided to make the fall visitations in the main as outlined and published by others. his predecessor, the late Robert Sroufe. first visitation will be to Hermione. No. 12, Georgetown, Wednesday evening. It is especially desired by the grand chancellor and members of Hermione Lodge that all Pythians take notice of the date and then turn out in large numbers on this occasion. An innovation in the work of the Pythian Sisters is to be inaugurated in Friendship Temple Wednesday evening. This No. 18, and is expected to be of more than usual announced all members of the order will and visitors.

Boyer of Oriental Lodge, No. 6, of Alex-andria, Va., also contributed several vo-cal solos. The committee in charge was treasurer, and found to be in fine condi-treasurer, and found to be in fine condition and the council also in an excellent | son, T. M. Stump, J. B. Altman and J. financial condition. Addresses were made E. Shepard made remarks, after which by Past State Councilors D. Luther Smith and J. W. Parr, Past Councilors Rue and Jones and others. Refreshments Past Councilor Charles E. Payne of Potomac Council, No. 20, has been re-ported improving nicely. Mr. Payne has been sick about one year.

cil of the Junior Order United American Mechanics a silk flag was offered to the council bringing in the most members. Several of the councils are making a hard fight to win it.

Council. No. 26, adjourned its meeting Forge Council, No. 51, Edward J. Ross Council's visitation will be held Wednesday, October 29, and several promispeakers are expected to be

Thomas Jefferson Council, No. 12, holds its meetings in the Northeast Temple Tuesday nights. At its last session several candidates made application for membership. Past State Councilor Washington P. Evans is the senior leader

Francis Scott Key Council, No. 22 expects to have a class to "put through" at its meeting October 30. At the meeting Thursday night, State Council Conductor Grover E. Payne, was present and made an address, followed by Past State Councilor Jessie O. Jolliff and

American Council, No. 54, Wednesday ight expects to have one or more candidates ready to receive the degree of the Notes of the Red Men.

The first of the great chief's visitations was made to Logan Tribe, No. 8, Thursday evening. The following chiefs were the Cathedral has been tendered to the Minnic Eaber.

In the Cathedral has been tendered to the member of the capitor of the Suprements will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is extended to all members are consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An invitation is a consistent will be looked after by Mrs. Mankey.

An investment of the suprementation of the suprement the great sachem, in behalf of Great Prophet R. W. Thompson, presented Logan Tribe with a tomahawk which Tribe of Ben Hur. Washington Court, No. 1, at its meet-Poli's. Refreshments were served. Rapid progress is being made with the new court at Georgetown, it is reported. Thirty applications for membership are in the hands of the state manager thus far.

Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Invitations have been issued for the opening of the fall and winter campaign dresses and the principal speaker will be Edward Hart of Jersey City, N. J. Re-departure from the city of Francis J. Kilkenny, a popular and well known member of Division No. 5. Mr. Klikenny was the founder of the Irish home-going movement, and recently resigned his position in the Treasury Department to accept a more lucrative one in Chicago.

of the order will be instituted at the next regular meeting of Division No. 2, Sunday afternoon, October 19, in the Eagles' building. President James D. Flynn will be in charge, and the candidates, of which there are forty boys, will be taught the lessons of the Ancient Order.

ment and smoker at its meeting Tuesday evening in Donohue's Hall, Capitol

Knights of Columbus.

The building company held a special present: Great Sachem Dr. W. S. Whitman, Sachems Frank Fones and R. F. ters of importance in relation to the hall. man, Sachems Frank Fones and R. F. Martin, Past Sachem Roy Algate, Great Chief of Records J. E. Shepard, Past Sachem J. R. Sanders, Great Guard of the Forest David A. Harvey of Osage Tribe, No. 6; Great Senior Sagamore George E. Gartrell, Great Guard of the Wigner J. E. Dougherty, Past Sachems Frank Fones in the tent of the latter to the latter than the opening of the entertainments to be given this season under the auspices of Spalding Council. Washington Council will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening and Potomac Council Wednesday evening. The meeting of Potomac Council has been postponed from Monday to Wednesday cause of the celebration of Discovery day at the hall Monday evening. Grand Knight William F. McGee, who presided at a largely attended meeting

Thomas E. Petty; inside guard, J. J. Mc-Laughlin; outside guard, O. Lacy; trus-M. J. Colbert and J. Degnan. The state deputy, who was present, made a plea for the earnest support of the council in the approaching lecture to be given expansion is as natural as the growth under the auspices of the order in this of a tree; but I can never bring myself tine, Abbot Dom Gasquet., chairman of people transplant themselves and attack the commission for the revision of the the primitive business of living, and, so Latin Vulgate, met at the hall Friday, State Deputy Harrington, who presided, explained the object and scope of the work expected. The committee effected a back again to civilization as quickly as following officers: Chairman, E. P. Harrington; vice chairman, W. P. Normoyle; secretary, John J. Keenan, and treasurer, Harry J. Kane. The chairman appointed a sense of duliness or weariness. Webster Lodge, No. 7, held a smoker and entertainment at the close of its regular order of business Tuesday evening. The following program was rendered: Remarks by Grand Lecturer John dered: Remarks by Grand Lecturer John B. Dickman; vocal solo, Arthur Pierce:

The great sachem has announced a committee in charge is composed of James J. Breen, Daniel J. Callaghan, George H. Malone, Thomas Mc-laghan, George H. Malone, Thoma depend largely upon the arrangements to be made by the supreme board. Dom Polly, my dear? Gasquet is at present in New Jersey, and during the past week has been the guest of Thomas A. Edison, at Menlo Park.

Keane Council met Thursday evening, Grand Knight Charles W. Darr presiding.

be held at the hall. All the members and friends of the order are invited to be present. The exercises will be held under the direction of Washington Chapter and will consist of addresses by eminent work during the past week making arrangements for an autumn party to be speakers, and of vocal and instrumental given by the Spalding dancing assembly music. The members of the fourth de-at the hall Friday evening, to mark the gree in full regalia will also act as a

The Colonial Idea.

From the Saturday Review. mishandled in this country, so that to sents something far from interesting or the same fate; but it is recovering and is of Carroll Council Tuesday evening, when resuming associations somewhat les suing year took place, was unanimously it a few years ago. I know that there elected for a third term. Other officers are stalwart people in whom the very were as follows: Deputy grand mention of the word "colonies" arouses knight, Frank A. Kidd; financial secre- something like a religious fervor; and to Harry J. Kane: treasurer, Harry whom, the enchantment of distance being M. Hageney; chancellor, Maurice Fitz- added, every one and everything colonia gerald; recorder, George Thompson; war- appears as something almost sublime. Redmond De Vaney; advocate, am not one of these people. I neither boast of the fact nor apologize for it I am merely one of those who are in tee for three years, A. C. Neubeck; mem- capable of enthusiasm for the colonies bers of the building company, Albert E. as colonies; which is merely another way McCarthy and D. J. Crowell; delegate to of saying that the idea has not hitherto state council, W. J. Fleishell; alternates, been presented to me in a way that has aroused my enthusiasm. To a country like England, which has for centuries been fed on the food of the gods, colonial jurisdiction by Right Rev. Abbot Dom to glorify the branches at the expense of the trunk and roots, nor perceive that the water which spills over the edge of the basin is of a higher quality than that tive committee of fifty organized by the which springs from the fountains When state deputy to make arrangements for a I meet colonial people or tread the soil to admiration of the courage with which over again, and this admiration is generally accompanied by a desire permanent organization by electing the possible. The word colonial as a prefix quality, science or thing, is apt either to leave me quite unmoved, or else produce

Frustrated Felicity. From the Tatler. Liza-When yer goin' ter git married, Polly-Well, yer see, I won't marry Bill wen 'e ain't sober, an 'e won't marry me wen 'e is.

A SHADE THE BETTER.

The Man-"You're getting the better of the bargain if you trade your talking machine for my parrot.' The Woman-"In what way?" The Man-"You won't have to put new needles in or wind the parrot."